What is the Inclusive Workforce Summit?

Economic development and business success are directly tied to the quality of the workforce. To drive growth and innovation, we must build workplaces that embrace inclusion, diversity and provide opportunities for all talented individuals to thrive.

The Inclusive Workforce Summit will convene business leaders, civic organizations, and educators to explore strategies for cultivating a workforce of the future that is united in its inclusion and accessibility efforts. By promoting truly inclusive practices, companies can tap into the full talent pool and empower every Kentuckian to contribute.

This must-attend event will examine the key components needed to shape an equitable workforce ecosystem:

- People with Disabilities – identifying and utilizing an often-overlooked component of the workforce talent pool.
- Criminal Justice - Removing unfair barriers to employment.
- Economic Empowerment - Creating equal access to opportunities.
- Education Equity - Developing the potential of all students.
- Inclusive Business Cultures - Fostering diversity and belonging.

Join us to gain insights into developing inclusive workforce strategies that increase productivity and competitiveness. Discover how building a culture of inclusion that values diverse perspectives, experiences, and unleashes new ideas and innovations.

Don't miss this chance to future-proof your organization by being part of cultivating Kentucky's most valuable resource - an inclusive workforce reflective of our state's rich diversity of talents. Together, we can unlock the full potential that drives shared prosperity.
